- 1- fun capture of the bison. Image is very busy and out of focus.
- 2- interesting street scene. Shadows are too dark; image is crooked. Is the subject the people or the gyro stand???
- 3- pleasant scene. Pathway is nice but leads nowhere. Shadows are a bit dark
- 4- image of the pub is only part close to being in focus. Reframe and shoot with road leading to somewhere interesting.
- 5- beautiful image. Road takes your eye back to attractive mountains.
- 6- not as nice a previous. Would be interested in seeing more of the fire in background. Color of sky seems odd.
- 7- brick road framed by liquor barrels is nice touch. A bit over processed.
- 8- crowded street makes for nice story. Highlights terribly blown out.
- 9- interesting perspective of the bridge and roadway. Date stamp is not appropriate and ruins image.
- 10-slightly more interesting perspective of the bridge and roadway. Date stamp is not appropriate and ruins image.
- 11-wonderful capture of the rainbow arch with road running right into it. The road is not the subject though
- 12-pastel colors of the buildings are nice. Image is not in focus and doesn't tell a story.
- 13-leading line of the road works well for this image. A touch dark and a bit oversaturated.
- 14-Colored bricks work well to reinforce thought of a pathway. (I think this image is from Passau Germany??)
- 15-Wonderful composition but image is not anywhere near being in focus.
- 16-nice winding road. Too much sky. Crop the image into a 2 by 1 pano for a better look. Open up the shadows.
- 17-classic shot of the mittens. They are really the subject and the road is an afterthought
- 18-Nice colors in the rainbow. That's the subject of this image, not the roadway
- 19-congested and busy street. Lots to explore. Nothing is in sharp focus.
- 20- another nice rainbow with its reflection in the wet roadway. Well done.
- 21-winding road thru wilderness. Needs more contrast.
